CONDENSED FOR HURRIED READERS

Mr. Harry L. Peck, of Needmore, spent a few hours in town Monday on business.

Fare one way between Mercersburg and McConnellsburg 50 cents. Sheets Stage Lane.

Miss Helen Kendall, who had been spending a few weeks with her sister Hattie in Ohio, and at the home of her uncle Samuel McCain, in Pittsburg, is now with her sister, Mrs. A. Warrie Johnston in the Cove.

Miss Annie Reisner and her room mate, Miss Elizabeth Duncan, both of Wilson College, Chambersburg, spent the time from Saturday until Tuesday with the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Reisner, of this place.

In sending two dollars—one to pay for the year just closed, and one to pay a year in advance, A. K. Deshong, of Iowa, says he would be lost without the FULTON COUNTY NEWS to bring him the happenings from dear old Fulton every week.

Judge Evans, of Columbia county gave the constables a chill on Tuesday by declaring that there was ample evidence that they were not telling the truth in the reports they returned to court.

Miss Clara Reiswick, a Bedford county school teacher was so badly injured by one of her unruly pupils last winter that spinal trouble has developed and she is now lying in a serious condition.

Miss Nettie Knauff, of this place, and John Knauff, Jr., of Mercersburg, drove to Chambersburg and spent last Sunday with the former's brother and the latter's uncle, John Knauff.

It is impossible for a man to live wholly to himself however selfish he may be. Consciously or unconsciously what he says and does influences others and he in turn is influenced by them though he may not admit it.

When making snaps or cookies if the dish in which dough is mixed is kept in cold water while cookies are being rolled out, it will save adding more flour, thus making them short and crisp instead of hard and tough.

For the living of a true life one has to keep the conscience sensitive. Anything of a questionable nature we allow to enter into our speech or actions blunts the conscience more or less and lessens the beauty and symmetry of life.

Down at the White Pine Sanatorium for consumptives it takes 1176 soft boiled eggs for breakfast, and 350 lbs. of fresh fish for dinner. No wonder eggs are high; but if it does the unfortunate victims good, no one will be grudge them their diet of fresh eggs and fish.

What a blessing it is that life is a struggle. If everything were made easy for us most of the joy of living would be taken away. There is an exhilaration and blessing in the efforts we put forth, often against great odds, and every victory gained means added strength and power.

COOKBOOK TO SAVE HALF OF MEAT BILL.

North American to Make it Part of Next Sunday's Edition.

Housekeepers who have found trouble in making expense accounts normal while meat prices have been soaring, will welcome the Sunday North American for February 27, a part of which will be a cook book made up from tested recipes arranged to cut table expenses in half.

This is the first cookbook ever compiled with a view to showing how to prepare the cheaper parts of the beef, which are quite as nutritious as the costlier ones.

This collection of recipes puts the housewife in a position to beat the high prices, please her family, and keep her expenses normal in spite of the Beef Trust's quotations.

In Memory of R. M. Kendall.

Farewell, my dear beloved husband. Farewell! Farewell! O Father, dear. Thou hast left us now forever. Here on earth we safely weep, While in heaven thou art resting In that peaceful loving sleep.

Oh we miss you, dearest Father, But the Savior bade thee come; And we trust thee to thy Father, Who hast called thee from our home.

Oh, how many mourners were weeping As they gazed upon thy form Lying there so cold, and sleeping Never to wake till judgment morn.

Then, sleep, dearest beloved. Then, sleep, dearest beloved, Oh sleep, sleep, dearest Father. We shall all to thee come, When the Savior bids us welcome, We will all meet thee over there.

FORT LITTLETON.

Our sick are all improving.

Thursday was a very bad day to be out, but the sale at Mrs. C. S. Wilson's was well attended.

John Baldwin, of Burnt Cabins, was in town one day last week.

The festival at the church last Saturday evening was well attended. Chicken soup, ice cream and cake, and all sold out till ten o'clock.

I think we need more than a constable in our town. Three men that ought to have been at home with their families, and are old enough to know better, were out in the street shooting around Thursday evening. It is not safe for peaceable folks to be out.

A STORK'S NEST.

Treasures One Yielded in an Alsatian Town.

The following details concerning the structure and contents of a stork's nest investigated on the summit of the Cathedral of Colmar in Upper Alsace may be of interest:

The city architect has just delivered a public lecture there on "Storks and Their Ways." He described a stork's nest which was about 30 years old; it measured 6 feet across and was 5 feet in height; it weighed sixteen hundredweight, or over three-quarters of a ton, and it was such a solid mass that it had to be broken up by using a pickax. The nest was made of twigs of wood and clay and the materials filled twenty-four sacks.

The walls of the nest were found to contain seventeen ladies' black stockings, five fur caps, the sleeve of a white silk blouse, three old shoes, a large piece of leather and four buttons that had belonged to a railway porter's uniform.

A Blind Judge.

The death of Mr. E. P. Emmett, president of the Burnley Incorporated Law Society, one of the two blind solicitors in England, may recall the fact that in Ireland a Judge of the Superior Court discharged his judicial duties for years when totally blind. The Hon. Richard Pennefather was appointed a Baron of the Irish Exchequer in 1821, and died in 1859 while still retaining his judicial office. He was for the last five years of his life wholly blind, and on February 15, 1856, in the discussion in the House of Commons of a motion of Sir John Shelley's moving for a return of the dates of call to the bar of the various Irish Judges, their appointments as Judges, and the number of occasions on which they were absent from circuit, Mr. Baron Pennefather's retention of his seat on the bench, notwithstanding the deprivation of his sight, was a matter of stricture.—Law Times.

Cigarettes Out Cigars.

The cigar business in the British Isles has declined largely in late years, owing to the increasing taste for cigarette smoking.

Self-Made.

A large majority of the good and respectable women in this world have succeeded in being so without the assistance of chaperons.

HELEN, A POPULAR NAME.

That Name Out of Every Sixteen At Smith College.

Nine persons out of ten, if asked which of the names for women had found most general adoption, would answer "Mary." This would have been correct in the past. It is not the case today if the Smith college registration affords a test. Helen is the name of one Smith undergraduate in every 15, an interesting revival of the historic ratio. The complete tabulation shows the comparative use of the different spelling. "Lillian" occurs nine times to two "Lilians"—in spite of the example of Tennyson, Elizabeth is spelled 47 times with a "z" and twice with an "s." Katherine is spelled "ar" 25 times and "er" 12 times, while the old form beginning with "C" is found nine times more. Fashions change quite as rapidly in the names which fond parents select for their infants as in anything else in the world.

TOOK ALL HIS MONEY.

Often all a man earns goes to doctors or for medicines, to cure a stomach, liver, or kidney trouble that Dr. King's New Life Pills would quickly cure at slight cost. Best for dyspepsia, indigestion, biliousness, constipation, jaundice, malaria, and debility. 25c at Trout's drug store.

A Farmer and His Hogs.

The New York World contained the following special from Salem, New Jersey: A farmer brought two hogs to a local butcher and offered them for sale. A price was quickly agreed on and the farmer said he would sell, but wanted the hams and shoulders. To this the butcher was willing, and the weight had been taken the desired parts of the hogs were cut off and handed to the farmer, who asked for the balance coming to him. After figuring a moment the butcher replied, "You owe me $2.85." And the farmer had to pay it. The butcher had bought the hogs at wholesale price and charged the farmer retail rates for the parts reserved. In effect the farmer had made the butcher a present of two hogs and then paid him $2.85 for certain parts of them.

Special Interest to Farmers.

The most destructive forces of nature that we have to deal with are Thunder and Lightning. According to statistics at hand the frequency of lightning strikes varies somewhat with the character of the land, the nature of the roofing material used, the absence of the old time forests, and use of the buildings, all of which influence the liability of a strike and fire. As shown by statistics, it may be truly asserted that the risk in the country is five times greater than in the city. There is but one method known to science whereby we may guard against loss from this destructive element, that is to provide a path over which the condensed electricity of a cloud may find its way into the earth without injury to life or property. Such a path may be termed a Lightning Conductor and which may be constructed of Iron, Steel, Copper and like metals of sufficient size and surface to safely carry off the average bolt of lightning. If the Conductors are of metal and have sharp points they give off "brushes" of electricity which neutralize the stress above them and prevent a lightning stroke. The function of a lightning conductor is two-fold: first that of conducting the charge to the earth; second, the prevention of a destructive discharge by silent neutralization of the cloud electrification. All barns and exposed buildings should be protected by Lightning Conductors.

Stamp clerks in post offices it appears may aid in preventing the spread of disease by delivering the stamps they sell in the right manner. Physicians and the Board of Health of New York have complained that by pushing stamps across the counter with the adhesive side down, many disease germs adhere to them which are taken up by the tongue when the mucilage is moistened to affix the stamp to a letter, and thus the germs are taken directly into the system.

WANT A PICTURE FRAMED?

It may interest you to know that B. E. Stevens still frames pictures, and that you may find him between 8 a. m. and 4 p. m. doing business in room above Sheets' Livery office. He also does all kinds of furniture repairing and upholstering and—don't charge too much.

Executors' Sale of Valuable Farm and Timber Lands.

By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Fulton county, the undersigned, Executors of the will of Nathan B. Hanks, will offer at public sale at the late residence of the deceased, 1 mile south of Emmaville, in Brush Creek township, Fulton county, Pa.,

On Thursday, March 17, 1910,

the following valuable farm and timber lands: No. 1, known as the William Hanks tract, CONTAINING 500 ACRES, more or less; 100 acres, more or less, cleared, well fenced and in a high state of cultivation; the soil is RED SHALE underlaid with limestone; the farm is well watered with never-failing springs, making it an excellent grain and stock farm. Two apple orchards in good bearing condition. The improvements consist of a FRAME DWELLING HOUSE OF 10 ROOMS, A TENANT HOUSE OF 4 ROOMS, 2 large barns, wagon shed, corn-crib, hog pens, spring house, summer kitchen and other outbuildings, all in good condition. The balance of the farm is heavily timbered with OAK, PINE, CHESTNUT, LOCUST AND HICKORY, and the land will make fine farming land after the timber has been removed.

No. 2, known as the John Hanks tract, CONTAINING 75 ACRES, more or less, about 30 acres cleared, well fenced and in a good state of cultivation; it also is RED SHALE, well watered and has thereon a good Orchard of Apples, Peaches and Cherries. The improvements consist of a Log Barn. The balance of the tract is well timbered with OAK, HICKORY, LOCUST AND CHESTNUT.

No. 3, containing 14 acres, more or less, all in timber, chiefly Oak.

No. 4, CONTAINING 3 ACRES, more or less, separate from the other tracts, and adjoining the Crystal Spring Camp meeting grounds, all in timber.

Tracts Nos. 1, 2 and 3 are contiguous and form almost a square body of land. The OAK TIMBER on these three tracts has been estimated at upwards of 4,000,000 FEET, besides large quantities of PINE, CHESTNUT, LOCUST AND HICKORY. None of this timber has ever been cut or cut over, and it is the finest tract of timber in the County. These three tracts will be offered separately or together to suit the purchaser.

These lands are situated only 11 miles from the railroad.

TERMS—Tract No. 1, will be sold subject to a power of $200.00, the interest payable annually to Mrs. Matilda Hanks, widow, during her lifetime, and at her death the principal sum to the heirs of William Hanks, their heirs or assigns, 10 per cent. of bid on each tract when the property is knocked down, and on tracts Nos. 1, 2 and 3, one-half (including the 10 per cent.) on confirmation of sale, and the remaining half in one year from confirmation, with interest from date of confirmation, and on tract No. 4, 90 per cent. of bid on confirmation of sale. All deferred payments to be secured by judgments.

Sale to commence at 1 o'clock p. m. For further particulars call on Wm. C. Hanks on the premises.

RACKET STORE PRICES

FEBRUARY 1910

MANN DOUBLE-BIT AXE FOR 65 CENTS.

What do you think of that? We have just bought four dozen Robert Mann axes, that we can sell you at that price. The way we happened to get them was this: The men at the factory told their employers that rather than to be laid off in the midst of winter, they would work two weeks at the wages formerly received for one. This is a little hard on the factory hands, but it saves you money if you want an axe.

Another article that we have a great bargain is

HORSE BLANKETS

We have sold more this season than ever. Why? Because we never had a better line. We have the 5-A. They are all full size—even the 65-cent ones. See our $1.25, $1.48, $1.85, $2.00, $2.25, and $2.50. See our Stable Blankets, $1.25 and $1.48.

EGGS 78 CENTS A DOZEN :-

That's what they were in New York one day last week. Now, why don't you make your chickens lay, and your stock look nice, when you can get 25 cents' worth of powders from us for 15 cents.

HULL & BENDER.

Geo. W. Reisner & Co.

We sold during Institute a large number of

Ladies' Coats

and have a few left that we will close out at prime cost; if you want a very good coat at a very attractive price this is your chance. We have left a few elegant at astonishingly low prices when quality and style are considered. During the last ten or fifteen days we have sold quite a lot of Men's Overcoats.

We still have a nice bunch at Rock-Bottom Prices.

A large line of Warm Footwear for Men and Boys—all the very best makes at the old prices.

We can save you lots of money on quite a line of Domestic stuffs.
